THE STRIKE IN RUSSIA

GROWS MORE SERIOUS AND IS EXTENDING TO ALL RAILROADS OF THE EMPIRE.

MOSCOW IS NOW ISOLATED

TRAFFIC ON ALL LINES OUT OF THAT CITY AT A COMPLETE STANDSTILL.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 24.—The railroad strike situation has now entered on a highly serious phase. The movement is spreading rapidly to all the railroads of the empire, and apparently cannot be stopped, while in many cities it is communicating itself to the mill and factory employees.

The general strike in all branches of labor which the Socialists planned for the end of this year is seemingly bursting forth of its own volition.

Minister of Finance Kokovosoff has received a telegram from the governing committee of the Moscow bourse which said that a continuation of the strike for a week longer would force every factory in the Moscow region to shut down owing to lack of coal whether or not the factory hands took part in the strike.

The same condition of paralysis threatens all the trade and industry of Russia unless the strike is speedily settled. The inhabitants of Moscow are already feeling the effects of the strike in the increased prices of food and they are even confronted by famine.

As the demands of the men are purely political it seems impossible to satisfy them by economic concessions. Prince Hilkoff, minister of railroads, vainly appealed to the Moscow strikers on the basis of his own experiences in England and the United States, but he spoke to deaf ears. The men talked of nothing but their political rights, which, of course, the prince was powerless to grant.

The situation is apparently at a deadlock, from which egress can only be had by the surrender of one side or, perhaps, the proclamation of martial law on the railroads.

Transportation Tied Up.

A flood of dispatches from Simbirsk, Saratoff, Vyazma, Poltava, Nizhni Novgorod, Kharkoff, Smolensk, Kieff, Elizabetgrad, Kazan and other railroad centers all over Russia announced the complete tying up of all transportation.

The last link that bound Moscow, the commercial center of the empire, with the outer world was broken during the afternoon when the men on the Nicolai road, connecting Moscow with St. Petersburg, went on strike. The engineers shut off steam in their engines and Prince Hilkoff had great difficulty in obtaining a crew for the special train which brought him to St. Petersburg at midnight.

St. Petersburg has one line to the frontier and the employees of this line held a meeting late at night to decide whether or not they should participate in the strike movement.

Brigadier General Thomas H. Barry and Captain Sydney A. Cloman of the United States army, who were with the Russian army in Manchuria, left late at night for Vienna on what was perhaps the last train out of St. Petersburg. Railroad trains are now running only in the border regions of the empire.

Pathetic scenes are reported from Moscow, where thousands of the poorer inhabitants of the adjoining provinces have been waiting for four days for trains to take them home. They are camping out near the railroad stations and in the streets and many of them are without money and the necessities of life.

RIOTING IN NEW YORK.

Police Reserves Called Out to Quell Turbulent Syrians.

New York, Oct. 24.—Reserves from three police precincts were hurriedly summoned at night to the lower end of the city to quell what threatened to be a serious riot in the Syrian quarter, where fights between the friends and opponents of Bishop Hawaweenie have been frequent of late. The bishop was arrested a few weeks ago charged with participating in a shooting affray in Brooklyn and since then the Syrian quarter has been in a condition of chronic excitement. Before the police succeeded in clearing the streets half a dozen Syrians received cuts and stab wounds, none, however, of a serious character. Two Syrians were arrested charged with inciting to riot.

Brigands Kill Cossacks.

Baku, Oct. 24.—A band of brigands attacked a detachment of Cossacks near the Alayat railway station. Seven Cossacks were killed and one was wounded. The remainder of the Cossacks escaped.

RETURNS FROM THE ORIENT.

Miss Alice Roosevelt Arrives at San Francisco.

San Francisco, Oct. 24.—The Pacific Mail Steamship company liner Siberia arrived at this port during the day direct from Yokohama in 10 days, 10 hours and 28 minutes, breaking the record for steamer between Yokohama and San Francisco, the fastest previous trip between the two places having been by her sister ship, the Korea, in 11 days, 11 hours and 5 minutes.

The transpacific record is held by the Empress of China, 9 days and 18 hours in 1901 between Yokohama and Vancouver.

There were many distinguished passengers on the Siberia, among them being Miss Alice Roosevelt, United States Senator Newlands of Nevada and his wife; United States Senator Warren of Wyoming, Representative Longworth of Ohio, Brigadier General H. T. Allen, chief of the Philippine constabulary; E. H. Harriman, president of the Southern Pacific railroad, and Miss Amy McMillan of Washington, D. C., the traveling companion of Miss Roosevelt.

Although it was expected Miss Roosevelt would spend a few days in and around San Francisco, all the previous plans were changed during the voyage and neither her party nor that of Mr. Harriman landed in this city at all. Instead they were transferred from the Siberia to the tug Arab and taken direct to the Oakland Mole on the eastern side of the bay. They left there at 3.30 p. m. for the East over the Central part of the Southern Pacific system, connecting with the Chicago and Northwestern lines via Chicago for their home. An attempt is being made to beat all previous records between Yokohama and the cities of the East.

"All the presents that arrived were merely inexpensive mementoes of the trip, such as anyone traveling in strange countries would receive," said the president's daughter. "There was nothing so remarkable about my trip and I cannot understand why so much fuss was made about it. I had an exceptionally fine time and enjoyed every moment that I was away. The only thing that I regret is that so many nonsensical stories were circulated regarding me."

PREMIER OF RUSSIA

REPORTED THAT THE CZAR HAS APPOINTED COUNT SERGIUS WITTE.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 24.—It is persistently reported in the clubs and in government circles that the emperor has appointed Count Witte premier, with the portfolio of minister of finance.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 24.—Count Sergius Witte, it now seems, has definitely come into imperial favor and the shrewdest observers consider it certain that he will shortly be in active direction of the government as premier and head of a responsible cabinet. Since his return from the United States Count Witte has boldly ranged himself on the side of the Liberals and has not only advocated complete liberty of speech, of the press and of assembly as a corollary of the coming duma, but has urged the extension of the powers of the duma along the lines demanded by the reformers as well as a broader franchise so as to admit of fuller representation from the ranks of labor and the cultured classes. The emperor, to whom the count personally outlined his views, displayed much sympathy with them and leading members of the ministry supported Count Witte, including General Trepoft, assistant minister of the interior, who now ranks as one of the broadest minded of his majesty's counsellors and is understood to be working harmoniously with Count Witte.

The question of appointing a cabinet with a responsible premier, to which a faction in the ministerial ranks has been offering stubborn opposition in special conference, is liable to be decided on this week. The newly formulated statute governing the right of assembly was generally recognized as not being broad enough even before its promulgation and the Solsky reform commission is now at work on a more liberal draft.

The reception of the Countess Witte by the empress Monday is considered a singular evidence of the emperor's determination to confide his fortunes to the hands of Count Witte. No other interpretation is placed upon it in court circles, where the reception of the countess created great excitement. The countess is a Jewess of ordinary birth and had never before been received at court. When M. Witte was appointed minister, the emperor was reported to have said to him: "Remember you are not married."

The decrease in the influence of the grand dukes perhaps made it easier for the emperor to turn to Count Witte.

PRESIDENT AT MOBILE

FORTY THOUSAND PEOPLE TURN OUT TO HEAR HIM DELIVER AN ADDRESS.

IN SPITE OF ALL OPPOSITION

THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE OF THE NATION SAYS PANAMA CANAL WILL BE BUILT.

Mobile, Ala., Oct. 24.—All Mobile lent itself to the reception of President Roosevelt during his two hours' stay in this city. There was general closing of all business houses and along the route of the procession to the stand on Bienville square, where the reception ceremonies took place, residences and stores were covered with decorations of lights and bunting in the national colors. The route lay out Government street, one of the most noted drives in the South, for ten blocks. The sidewalks and streets along Government street were packed with humanity and at McGill Institute, Barton academy, and other points hundreds of school children were massed singing national songs as the procession passed. Cheer after cheer welcomed the president.

The procession was headed by a platoon of police followed by Colonel A. B. Dumont of the First Alabama National guard, and staff with the Mobile battalion following. Two companies of artillery from Fort Morgan followed the national guard and then came the cadets of the Alabama military school. Behind the boys came battle scarred Confederate veterans as a guard of honor to the president, in whose carriage were seated Judge Jules Alford, chairman of the committee on arrangements, Mayor Lyons and Colonel Edward Lafayette Russell.

Greeted by a Large Crowd.

A stand was erected on Bienville square, which when the president arrived was filled with 40,000 citizens. The area was brilliant with electric lights, while the live oaks formed a canopy of green. The president reached the stand at 5 o'clock, where he was received by a reception committee of 500 citizens. His seat was on an elevated dais in a chair which was built by the students of a technical school in Japan. Back of the chair was an enormous stuffed bear, bearing in its mouth a floral independence bell and above its head a white dove holding a streamer on which was the inscription "Blessed Is the Peacemaker." The bear was killed in a hunting expedition by Alexander II. of Russia in 1857. The bear was purchased by Hannis Taylor at a sale of effects of the house of Ebodie, to a prince of which the emperor presented the bear. Oliver J. Semmes, son of the Confederate admiral, Raphael Semmes, then presented to the president and pinned upon the lapel of his coat a handsome souvenir badge as the gift of the people of Mobile.

Judge Alford, chairman of the committee on arrangements, then introduced the president, who was briefly and warmly welcomed by Mayor P. J. Lyons, who paid high tribute to him as a man, statesman and patriot. The formal welcome was then delivered by Colonel Edward Lafayette Russell.

Canal Will Be Built.

President Roosevelt was cheered as he arose to speak. He thanked the people for their magnificent reception and spoke special word of greeting to the Confederate veterans, who formed a portion of his escort. He referred to the fact that one of his uncles was in Alabama during the Civil war. The last time he came through Alabama, he said, he was going with his own regiment to the Spanish war and in that regiment were more men whose fathers wore the gray than those who wore the blue. They emulated but one spirit in common, the spirit of seeing who could do most for our flag.

Referring to the Panama canal, the president said he did his best to bring about its completion for the benefit of the whole people, but particularly for the benefit of the Gulf states. Originally, he said, he favored the Nicaragua route, but when it was demonstrated that it must be the Panama canal or nothing he favored the Panama route, as he wanted to see a canal built, and one will be built, notwithstanding the efforts of certain people who are striving to delay or defeat the construction of the canal. The president said:

"If we build the canal, we must protect it and police it ourselves. We must therefore bring up and keep up our navy to the highest state of efficiency."

"In the event of war the American people must rely mainly upon its volunteer soldier. While it is comparatively a simple act to turn a man into quite a good soldier, you can neither improvise a battleship or the crew of a battleship. It is not necessary that we should have a particularly large navy, but it is necessary that, ship for ship, it should be a little the best in the world."

The president concluded his speech by referring to his pleasure at seeing the children, the future citizens of this country.

Kills a Woman and Escapes.

Coatsville, Pa., Oct. 24.—Frederick Frein during the day shot and killed Mrs. Librati Duanetti, with whom he boarded, while she was standing over a washtub. After notifying the woman's husband that he had committed the deed, Frein escaped to the woods. A posse of fifty armed men is searching for him.

Harvest Hands Robbed.

Minneapolis, Oct. 24.—Another group of returning harvest hands was held up in a boxcar near Anoka by two masked men, who secured about $100 in cash and two watches from their eight victims and then disappeared in the woods. The men were masked and there is no clue to their identity.

JERRY SIMPSON DEAD

"SAGE OF MEDICINE LODGE" SUC-CUMBS AFTER ILLNESS OF SEVERAL MONTHS.

Wichita, Kan., Oct. 24.—Ex-Congressman Jerry Simpson died at 6:05 a. m. of aneurism of the aorta. Mr. Simpson had been in ill health for nearly a year. Six months ago he consulted a specialist at Chicago, who pronounced his case hopeless.

Ex-Congressman Simpson was born in New Brunswick on March 31, 1842. At fourteen he began life as a sailor and during his twenty-three years following that pursuit commanded many large vessels on the Great Lakes. In the Civil war he served in the Twelfth Illinois infantry. He came to Kansas in 1878. Originally he was a Republican, but later became a Greenbacker and Populist. He was a member of congress from 1891 to 1895 and from 1897 to 1899, being nominated the last time by both the Democrats and Populists. After he left congress he moved to Roswell, N. M., where he engaged up to the time of his death in stock farming. He returned to Kansas a month ago and entered a local hospital for treatment. His condition became hopeless ten days ago and since then the patient kept alive principally by sheer force of will. His wife and son were at the bedside at the end.

Washington, Oct. 24.—"The sage of Medicine Lodge," as Jerry Simpson was called, was in many respects one of the most unique characters which adorn the history of congress. He was swept into the Fifty-second congress by a wave of Kansas Populism, charged with the task of reforming the whole government and living down the only advance information his colleagues had of his personality—that he wore no socks. The latter task he succeeded in accomplishing in fact, although he never quite lost the title "Socksless Jerry." His legislative accomplishment consisted in turning popular Eastern sentiment regarding Populism from scornful ridicule to respectful consideration during his service of six years in the Fifty-second, Fifty-third and Fifty-fifth congresses.

BESIDE HIS SON'S COFFIN.

Grief-Crazed Father Ends His Own Life by Shooting.

New York, Oct. 24.—Crazed with grief over the death of his son, who committed suicide with illuminating gas last week, Herman Schultz shot himself through the head while the funeral service was being read over the body of his son and fell prostrate across the coffin, dead.

Mrs. Schultz and her three daughters fainted and the funeral of the son was postponed that both father and son might be buried together.

Murphy and McCarren To Testify.

New York, Oct. 24.—It is stated that Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, and Patrick McCarren, Democratic leader in Brooklyn, will be called to testify before the insurance investigating committee.

THE INSURANCE SITUATION

Thos. W. Lawson claims the credit for the exposing of the great insurance grafters in New York, and he certainly is entitled to it. In the October issue of Everybody's he writes an open letter to President McCall, characterizing him as a thief and a rascal, and demands that he resign his position and give an honest man control. Failing to resign it is Lawson's purpose to attempt to secure control of the company and oust him. To do this he must secure the proxies of a majority of the policy holders, which he is now attempting to do, as he is advertising broadcast throughout the country for all policy holders who desire to see the present thieving management ousted, to send him their proxies.

Lawson's past record as an expert stock manipulator on Wall street hardly justifies the view that he is doing all this exposing from philanthropic motives, nevertheless, whatever his motives may be, he has performed a great public service, and these companies in his hands could not be conducted in a worse manner, and as he is the only person who could possibly wrest control from the present corrupt management, it would be wise to send him proxies and give him control if he can get it. The policy holders could not be worse off, and might be much better, in fact under Lawson's management, in view of the great publicity given the matter, and probable remedial legislation, the companies will hereafter be conducted honestly and for the benefit of the policy holders. In such a case the insurance companies will be the blessings they were designed to be, instead of the greatest source of graft and corruption in the history of the world, which they are now.

BRAINERD MILL

IS TO EXPAND

Northwest Paper Company is Forced to Expand on Account of Increase in Business

ENLARGED TWICE ITS CAPACITY

The following from the St. Cloud Journal-Press will be of interest:

"Information from a reliable source has it that the pulp mill at the Brainerd dam is soon to be enlarged to twice its present capacity.

"The company is now unable to fill its orders, and will, it is said, soon commence to enlarge the works.

"They figure a clear profit of more than $10,000 that has been earned by the present plant, and by doubling the output, the cost of manufacture will be reduced so that the net earnings will be still greater.

"After completion of the projected enlargement of the plant, it is the intention of the company to commence the manufacture of paper.

"This will be of benefit to residents of Northeast Brainerd and partly compensate them for the shutting down of the saw mill."

PERFUMES OF THE EAST.

The Crusaders Brought Them From the Holy Land to Europe.

During the dark ages and in early mediaeval times perfumes, with the exception of incense for ecclesiastical use, were almost unknown, and the rude Saxon thanes and Norman barons and their spouses were quite content with the smell of wood fires and huge masses of roast or seethed meat and were not at all solicitous to enjoy the pleasure of sweet odors. It seems to have been the crusaders who brought from the Holy Land into western Europe the perfumes for which the east has from time immemorial been renowned. The original home of perfumes was either China or Egypt. In the last named century the priests of the temple of Heliopolis used to offer every day to their divinity three kinds of perfumes, one in the morning, one at noon and the third at night, the last being a scent composed of sixteen ingredients, forming an ensemble called kaphi. The universality of perfumes in ancient Greece is known to every one who remembers the delightful descriptions of the perfumed baths of Roman ladies in Bulwer's "Last Days of Pompeii," and from Hellas the use of perfumery spread to Rome, where, under the empire, almost every object was scented.

Even the standards of the legions were perfumed, and the velarium of the Coliseum when the emperor was present was dusted with aromatic powders. The successive invasions of the barbarians led to the shutting up of the perfumers' shops with which the Eternal City had abounded, and until the time of the Renaissance perfumery in Italy was only vended by a few apothecaries. Its use, however, had not died out in Constantinople, and at the fall of the Greek empire the Byzantine Greeks found that their Turkish conquerors were as passionately fond of perfumery as they themselves were.

Sweet essences for secular use were first made an article of trade in France by one Rene or Rinaldo, a Florentine, who came to Paris in the suit of Catherine de Medici, to whom the French people likewise owe the introduction of confectionery and if malevolent rumor is to be credited the confection of at least half a dozen subtle poisons.

THE TIME WILL COME—

When it will be a disgrace not to work when one is able.

When to get rich by making others poorer will be considered a disgrace.

When the same standard of morality will be demanded of men as of women.

When the golden rule will be regarded as the soundest business philosophy.

When all true happiness will be found in doing the right and only the good will be found to be real.

When the business man will find that his best interests will be the best interests of the man at the other end of the bargain.

When all hatred, revenge and jealousy will be regarded as boomerangs which inflict upon the thrower the injury intended for others.

When the "best society" will consist of men and women of brains, culture and achievement, rather than those whose chief merit and distinction lie in the possession of unearned fortunes.—Success Magazine.

AN N. P. BRAKEMAN KILLED OUTRIGHT

BODY WAS HORRIBLY MANGLED

Young Man was Single and was Planning to Visit Old Home In Michigan

George Parker, one of the best known freight brakemen on the Superior division of the Northern Pacific, was instantly killed near Sylvan yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock and the accident is described by those who saw it as one of the most tragic in some time on this division. The young man in trying to catch on to a moving freight missed his hold or got his foot caught in some manner and he was thrown beneath the wheels and was killed outright.

The young man has been braking for Conductor Harris, of the Superior division for about a year and half. He was one of the most sober and industrious men on the division, and by his thriftiness had accumulated quite a snug sum of money. He had worked at one time out of Brainerd on the Morris branch and at another time fired on the N. P.

The accident occurred right at the Sylvan station and within plain view of Conductor Harris. It seems that they were on an extra coming east and had orders to meet another extra freight going west at Sylvan.

Their train stood on the main line and the extra from the west was run through the siding. When the extra from the west shot in around the siding Parker left his train and went over to the side-track to catch on the train to ride to the switch at the west end of the yard. He was going there to close the switch after the west bound freight had passed which is the usual custom of trainmen. He could have walked west to the switch, but it had been a habit of his to catch about the third car from the engine and ride to the switch. He did this once too often, however, for when he made a grab for the ladder on the car he either missed his hold or his foot slipped and he was hurled beneath the wheels and in a twinkling of an eye was killed.

The body rolled for some distance on the ground and when picked up it was discovered that the left foot was cut off, the right arm was broken to a pulp, the man's back was ground, his head was crushed and bruised and his body was otherwise mangled and battered.

Word was at once sent to Brainerd and Coroner Gibson was summoned. He was taken out on a small special and the remains of the man were brought back to Brainerd and they are now lying at the undertaking rooms of D. M. Clark & Co. waiting for a word from the young man's parents.

Parker was 36 years of age and formerly lived at Swartz Creek, Mich., where his parents now reside. He had not been home in four years and Conductor Harris stated last night that he had induced him to take a layoff this winter and go home and see his folks. From letters on his person it was learned that this trip was planned and his parents expressed their joy in the thought that he was coming home. The young man was universally liked by all the trainmen and there was not a one that ever had a word to say against him. He was a familiar figure in Brainerd, having passed through thousands of times. He was a member of the Odd Fellow's lodge and also the B. of R. T.

Coroner Gibson did not think it was necessary to hold an inquest and the remains have been prepared for burial. They will be sent to his old home in Michigan, but the home coming will not be as joyous as the old folks had planned.

WERE WED OCTOBER 12

Mr. Chas. Treglawny and Miss Elizabeth Springer, Both Well Known Here,

Married Quietly at Tacoma

Miss Bess Treglawny has a letter from Livingston, Mont., conveying the information of the marriage of Chas. Treglawny and Miss Elizabeth Springer, both very well known in this city. The marriage occurred at Tacoma, Wash., on the evening of October 12. They have gone to housekeeping at Livingston where Mr. Treglawny has a good position.

Both young people were reared in this city and have scores of friends who will extend congratulations. Miss Springer is the young lady who for a long time was a clerk in J. F. McGinnis & Co.'s store.

Thought Once that Relatives of Man Murdered at Watertown, S. D., Lived at Crow Wing

It was believed for a time yesterday that the relatives of Archie Bailey, the man who was murdered at Watertown, S. D., in a saloon row, lived at Crow Wing, but it is thought that this is a mistake.

The picture of the murdered man is at the postoffice and can be seen by anyone interested. There are some who think that they have seen the man before, but they are not quite sure about the matter.

AGONIZING DEATH

OF AN OLD LADY

A Mrs. L. White, of Mille Lacs Lake, Burned Herself and Died From the Effects

LAY ALONE FOR MANY HOURS

Clothes Thought to Have Caught While Old Lady Was Building a Fire

An old lady by the name of Mrs. L. White, who lived with a son about twenty-three miles from Brainerd, toward Mille Lacs, died last evening about 9 o'clock from the effects of burns which she received at an early hour yesterday morning and the details of the accident and the subsequent events are most appalling.

It seems that she lived in a small cottage alone and in another cottage only a short distance away, her son and his wife resided. Her son's name is C. L. White and he is well known in this city. Sunday Mr. White drove to Brainerd on business and expected to remain all day yesterday, Monday. His wife was away in Dakota so that the old lady was left alone for the day, which was nothing unusual as she had often been left before. Yesterday morning the old lady arose and started to light the fire, and from the indications about the place, an explosion must have followed, in fact, it was learned that she had used kerosene in lighting the fire. Her clothing were caught by the flames and it is stated that not a stitch of clothing was left on her body. She was literally burned to a crisp. The woman in her agony is said to have then crawled on her hands and knees to the cottage of her son and with an axe knocked the door down, got inside procured an old dress and crawled back to her own cottage again where she managed to get on the bed. Here she laid until 6 o'clock last night when her son returned from Brainerd and the agony that she must have suffered during the long hours of waiting certainly are well nigh indescribable.

C. L. White, the son, at once sent for one of the neighbors and Dr. J. A. Thabes, of this city, was telephoned for. Dr. Thabes did not leave for the White place until way after 9 o'clock and by the time he got there the woman was dead.

This morning Coroner Gibson was sent for and about noon he left for Mille Lacs to examine the conditions surrounding the case.

Mrs. White was about seventy-five years of age and formerly lived in Moorhead and Fargo where the son was known for years as "Whitey," being a gambler who was well known there. Since that time he has quit the gaming tables and the green cloth and located on a farm near Mille Lacs which he has worked successfully for years.

Yellow Fever Epidemic at New Orleans About Ended.

New Orleans, Oct. 24.—Following is the official yellow fever report up to 6 p. m.: New cases, 4; total, 3,365; deaths, 0; total, 435; new focus, 0; cases under treatment, 63; cases discharged, 2,867.

With six consecutive days without a death from the fever and only sixty-three cases under treatment, the confidence in the eradication of the fever is widespread, although there has not been a sign of frost yet.

The weekly mortality statistics compiled during the day are also remarkable in that they show a death rate among the white population for the past week of 11.75 per 1,000, which equals the mortality record of any city in the country. The total for both whites and blacks is only 16.32 per 1,000.

Formal notification of the raising of the Arkansas quarantine has been received.

Fever Epidemic Ended.

Vicksburg, Miss., Oct. 24.—Further evidence that the yellow fever epidemic is over was Surgeon Gutierrez' action during the day in discharging all acting assistant marine hospital service surgeons, four in number. For the twenty-four hours ending at 6 p. m. three new cases of fever were reported, two being outside the city.

Improvement in Florida.

Pensacola, Fla., Oct. 24.—The yellow fever summary for the day follows: New cases, 7; total, 487; deaths, 2; total, 68; cases discharged, 223; cases under treatment, 97. For the first time in more than six weeks there are less than 100 cases under treatment.

What Sandy Soil Can Do.

EDITOR DISPATCH:—

Dear Sir—I have put on exhibition at Mr. McGinnis' store three baskets of roots, to-wit: Belgian carrots, mangolds and sugar beets. There were raised on a village lot, of very average fertility, indeed below average, received only the most ordinary culture, and are in no wise forced specimens of what this soil would produce properly tilled. The carrots—18 in the bushel—produced at the rate of 1,000 bushels to the acre, the Mangolds—9 to the bushel—produced at the rate of six hundred bushels to the acre. While the sugar beets—25 to the bushel—represent about three hundred bushels to the acre. The carrots are well up to standing in production. The mangolds bare average. They should equal the carrots. And the sugar beets are away below standard. Cause of this? Carrots will do better on sandy land and on poor soil than either of the other roots. If I could have had soil in good tilth, and been able to give them—the mangolds and beets—the culture they should have had, and which the average farmer would give, the results would easily have been double. But the proof is there in those baskets of what can be done on this soil. Any one can raise enough for table and one cow on two lots if cared for properly. I mean enough vegetables and roots. This means close and careful culture. But this soil needs, and needs badly, especially where it has been cropped for years—as was the soil on which I grew these and other vegetables—heavy dressing with mixed stable dressing, horse and cow mixed, and a good dusting of lime. The scabs on the beets show poor soil, absence of potash and lime, and the wet season. At another time, with your permission, I will write a series of letters on gardening. For now, I simply desire to call attention to the fact that this soil will give heavy crops of roots if properly farmed.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

MR. DANIEL SULLY

His career as one of the stellar lights of the theatrical firmament dates from 1883, when he produced "The Corner Grocery." This comedy was one of the big hits of its day and for five seasons Sully played it throughout the country to crowded houses. He then produced another comedy, "Daddy Nolan," in which the same characters were introduced in a story of somewhat stronger dramatic nature; this was also very successful and ran several seasons. Later Mr. Sully produced a number of comedies and dramas with more or less success, but his next big winner was "O'Brien, The Contractor," which was a masterpiece in its way and one of the best delineations of Irish-American character ever presented in this country.

After "O'Brien" came "The Parish Priest." Like "The Sign of the Cross," "The Parish Priest" at first aroused a storm of protest from the very people who eventually gave it the most enthusiastic approval. After playing the priest for three seasons, Sully put on "The Old Mill Stream" and afterwards "The Chief Justice," but wherever he played he received numerous requests for the repetition of "The Parish Priest," or for another play in which he assume a clerical role. When "Pastor" was offered him, he recognized in a moment its great possibilities and immediately arranged to put it on the boards; his faith in this play has amply justified and there is no doubt that it will rank as the crowning success of his long career. "Our Pastor" will be seen at the Brainerd opera house next Tuesday evening.

"THE HOLY CITY."

Announcement of a performance of "The Holy City" interests theatre-goers. The great Biblical drama and the production given it, the acting company, the music and spectacles with which the play abounds, furnishes satisfaction and pleasure so complete that Managers Gordon & Bennett's enterprise is a leading theatrical event. The theatre-goers who appreciate entertainment in the proportion given for following thought, will, in the thrillingly told story of the Apostle John, find reflection, dramatic study and future enjoyment rarely combined. The theatre goer who is more pleased with brilliant spectacle and wonderful stage effects, has his wish gratified by preparation and execution.

A FITTING FAREWELL

Mrs. J. N. Nevers Given a Surprise This Afternoon by a Large Number of Lady Friends

This afternoon Mrs. J. N. Nevers was honored at her home on Fourth street when some eighty or a hundred ladies called, making the event a sort of fitting farewell before she leaves for her new home at Spokane, and so quietly were the arrangements made that it was a complete surprise to the lady. The afternoon was spent in a pleasant manner in social intercourse and light refreshments were served.

Mrs. Nevers was presented by the ladies with a half dozen solid silver spoons and a half dozen solid silver knives. The event was a most pleasant one and will long be remembered by those who bestowed the honor as well as the receiver. Mrs. Nevers has always been prominent in Brainerd in society and club work and her going away will leave a vacancy that will be hard to fill.

"UMPIRE STATE" STOVES FOR WOOD

OUR CLAIMS FOR SUPERIORITY

Of these stoves over all others are based upon the following exclusively new features:

FIRST—Only Tamala air-tight that does not smoke and spit flames when top feed is opened, or puff, roar and explode while in operation.

SECOND—Jointless, corrugated, all cast iron bottom, having a pit of 6 inches deep, in which the fuel burns without any possibility of leakage.

THIRD—Perfect draft regulation and adjustment by means of our patent screw register in the oval air tight fitted ash door in the pit. The opening for this door is arranged so as to permit the easy and cleanly removal of the ashes, and avoid dust when door is open.

FOURTH—Mounted with lasting and heavy corrugated sheet steel of the highest quality.

SIXTH—Cast-iron main top with two cooking holes in 24 and 28, and a supplementary swinging feed-top in 18 and 22.

SEVENTH—Check register in pipe collar.

EIGHTH—Handsomely nickel-plated foot rails, urn and nickel panel, knobs, screw register, and nickel swing top.

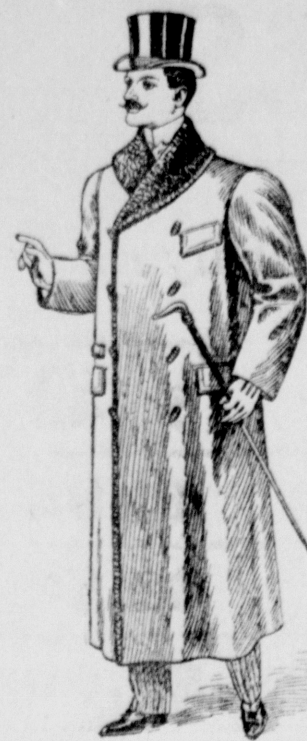

NINTH—Has cast-iron front, fitted with a circular 12 inch door for feeding.

TENTH—Pipe collars made to receive inverted stove pipe, to avoid exterior leakage of creosote, which is inevitable in a thoroughly air-tight stove.

Society in Electrical Service.

The man with the hoe and the patient beast of burden may be driven from the farms of the Wabash valley as the result of a novelty in electrical service which is proposed by the Fort Wayne and Wabash Traction company, operating eighty miles of interurban lines in this section, says a Wabash (Ind.) special to the Chicago Record-Herald. If it is successful dynamo will displace hand workers, draft animals, steam and gasoline engines now used. The company proposes to install at cost an electrical outfit for each landowner within one mile on either side of its tracks and furnish current at annual rates to be based on the extent of the service required.

A Fantastic Duty.

A fantastic duty falls every fifth year to the lot of the mayor of St. Ives in Cornwall, England, when the bequests left by John Knill, a former collector of customs, are distributed. Accompanied by the borough mace bearers, he has to walk in procession, with ten maids dressed in white and ten old widows, to the monument known as Knill's steeple, round which, to the strains of a fiddle, he and his strangely assorted companions are required to step a measure. Then the bequests, which include £5 for the best knitter of fishing nets and £5 for the best curer and pucker of fish, are distributed. After this the trustees adjourn to dinner.

THREATEN TO STRIKE

TEXTILE OPERATIVES AT FALL

RIVER, MASS., MAY AGAIN

QUIT THEIR WORK.

WANT THEIR PAY INCREASED

THEY OBJECT TO METHOD BY

WHICH EMPLOYERS WOULD MAKE THE RAISE.

Fall River, Mass., Oct. 24.—The textile situation here is now more critical than it has been at any time since the close of the great strike last January. The manufacturers' association, representing all the print cloth mills in the city, with the exception of those controlled by M. C. D. Borden of New York, held a meeting during the afternoon and voted to refuse the request of the textile council for a direct restoration of the wage schedule which prevailed previous to the 12½ per cent reduction of July 25, 1904. The action of the association will be considered at a special meeting of the textile council and it is probable the entire matter will be referred to special meetings of all the unions represented in the council.

Many of the business men fear that another strike will be decided upon by the unions.

The plan of the manufacturers' association provided for a direct increase of 5 per cent and a profit sharing arrangement, which at present would increase the wages of the employees about 13 per cent. This, however, would vary with fluctuations of the market price of cloth.

The new schedule went into effect during the day and no strike occurred, except at the Barnard mills, where the ring spinners remained away.

HUSBAND DISCOVERS BODIES.

Returns From Work to Find His Wife and Another Man Killed.

Washington, Oct. 24.—Mary Frances Scheitlin, aged thirty-five, the wife of Rudolph B. Scheitlin, an electrician at the navy yard, and William A. Botomy, aged thirty-eight, were found dead late in the afternoon by the husband in the front room of the Scheitlin home. A revolver from which three shots had been fired was on the floor. Two shots hit the woman and the third the man. The discovery was made when the husband returned from work. The police believe that Botomy first shot the woman and then himself. Botomy had visited the house several times recently but had been warned by the husband to stay away.

POLICE CHARGE CROWD.

Ten Rioters Killed and Hundreds Wounded at Santiago, Chile.

Santiago, Chile, Oct. 24.—A meeting called to petition the government to abolish the import tax on Argentine cattle degenerated into a most serious riot owing to the absence of the troops, who are now engaged in maneuvers two days' march from the capital. The police, who were unable to maintain order, charged the crowd and killed ten persons and wounded hundreds. The rioters destroyed street cars and smashed electric lights.

The rioting was continued during the day, many persons being killed or wounded. The rioters attacked the gas works but were repulsed. The troops are expected back here soon.

STEVENS WILL NOT RESIGN.

Chief Engineer of Panama Canal Will Stay at His Post.

Panama, Oct. 24.—It being persistently rumored in the canal zone that Chief Engineer John F. Stevens intends resigning, Mr. Stevens in an interview said:

"You can deny the report. There is absolutely no truth in it. I am satisfied with my work in every way and, God willing, I will remain here until the canal is finished."

Mr. Stevens went to Colon to examine the preliminary work on the system which is to furnish the water supply of Colon, which will be completed next December.

BODY FOUND IN THE RIVER.

Philadelphia Boy Was Not Locked in a Boxcar.

Philadelphia, Oct. 24.—The body of Louis Dobek, an eight-year-old boy, who was believed to have been locked in a boxcar on the Pennsylvania railway, was recovered from the Delaware river during the day. There were several cuts and bruises on the face and arms. One of Dobek's companions had told the police that the boy was locked in a freight car and the Pennsylvania railway officials opened cars by the hundreds all over the country.

Grand Forks, N. D., Oct. 24.—Martin Peterson, aged thirty-three, suicided at the Great Northern passenger station by shooting himself through the brain. He owned a farm near Larimore and spent the day here, showing signs of insanity in conversation with an acquaintance with whom he talked. He was single and had no relatives in this country.

WANTS DEFINITE INFORMATION.

President of Suspended Bank Refuses to Make a Statement.

Pittsburg, Oct. 24.—Frederick Gwinner, Sr., president of the Enterprise National bank of Allegheny, Pa., now in the hands of Receiver John B. Cunningham, in an interview said:

"I have decided to say nothing more concerning the condition of the bank until I have something definite on which to comment. As yet I know nothing concerning the bank's condition. Of course I understand everything in a badly muddled state and I believe that the bank has been wrecked by persons who are neither bankers nor depositors, but I will make no further statements until I am in possession of tangible, definite information."

"When do you expect to learn something definite?" was asked.

"Just as soon as Receiver Cunningham submits his report."

"Mr. Gwinner, do you know anything of the sensational rumors persistently circulated that notes for a large amount have disappeared since the closing of the bank?"

"I don't know anything about those notes; not a thing. When there is a final report of the financial condition of the bank, it will be time for the directorate to take action."

Bench Sands.

A party of chauffeurs were walking along Cape May beach. One of them picked up a handful of sand and said: "Why is it that one beach is firm enough for motor cars, while another is so soft a child can hardly walk on it?" "The sand in your hand answers that question," the second chauffeur replied. "See how fine it is." The sand was, indeed, as fine as dust, as fine as talcum powder. "The finer a sand is the more closely it will pack and, by consequence, the firmer surface it will offer," went on the second chauffeur. "This fine sand here makes a roadbed many feet in depth—a roadbed you couldn't pack more closely if you rolled it a hundred years with a hundred ton roller. Study the sand at Long Branch or Asbury Park. It is prettier than this. It is made of separate grains that you can readily distinguish. Each is a perfect cube, white or black or red—a beautiful clear colored shape that it is a pleasure to look at. Each is about fifty times bigger than the Cape May grains; hence the sand of Asbury Park or Long Branch won't pack down, won't make a firm roadbed. There is only one place in the country where the sand is finer than at Cape May, and that place is Ormond."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

LAKE STEAMER MISSING.

Not Reported Since the Big Storm of Last Week.

Cleveland, Oct. 24.—The ore steamer Kaliyuga, from Marquette Thursday, due in Cleveland Saturday night, has not been heard of. The vessel may be in shelter at Green Bay or another port. The Kaliyuga was in Lake Huron during the height of the storm on Friday. F. L. Tonson of Painesville, is captain of the boat, which has a crew of eighteen.

OPERATIONS SUSPENDED.

Ohio Mob Compels Traction Company to Stop Running Cars.

Canal Dover, O., Oct. 24.—A mob of several hundred persons gathered in the streets of New Philadelphia during the afternoon and threatened violence to the men operating the cars of the Tuscarawas Traction line, between that city and Urichville, because the management of the road had doubled the rate of fare between the two towns. During the day persons who had refused to pay the increased fare were ejected from the cars and this aroused the ire of many citizens, the hostile demonstration following. This action caused the management to suspend operation of the line until an understanding with the county commissioners regarding the rate of fare to be charged can be arrived at.

WOMAN SHOTS AN OFFICER.

Tragedy Follows His Attempt to Serve a Writ of Execution.

Cedar Rapids, Ia., Oct. 24.—Mrs. Zeta Eekels shot Constable Peter Martin through the head at her home here at night. The woman shot once into the ceiling as a warning and then turned her weapon against the officer. The constable was attempting to serve a writ of execution and remove some furniture from the house.

A Most Wonderful Cure.

Joseph D. Underhill, of Doland, S. Dakota, says:—I have received great benefit from your White Wine of Tar Syrup. I had a deep seated cough and the doctors gave up all hopes of my recovery and pronounced it consumption. I tried everything that we could hear of. Finally one of my friends prevailed upon me to use your White Wine of Tar Syrup. I used 1½ bottles and am entirely cured. Such medicine I can recommend to those who were afflicted as I was.

LaGrippe Then Pneumonia

No remedy equals Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup for these terrible and fatal diseases. If taken thoroughly and in time, it will cure a case in 48 hours, and for the cough that follows it never fails to give relief.
